

This petition has more merit than some of the other current petitions before the commission in these matters. Morse Code is an important aspect of Amateur Radio for multiple reasons and it is important to retain some classes of license requiring demonstration of proficiency in Morse Code. Capability beyond 5 wpm is very useful in practical communications and it would be beneficial to reinstate a license structure supporting better skills.